

1.1-P11. Identification signals from atmospheric storms

The method of identification signals from atmospheric storms based on the Fourier, spectral, morphological and correlation analysis. Signals from this source have a very low frequency. This method allows extracting the signal, its direction and velocity. Results compare with maps of meteorological fields.

Primary author: TSYBULSKAYA, Nadezda (A.M. Obukhov Institute of Atmospheric Physics)

Presenter: TSYBULSKAYA, Nadezda (A.M. Obukhov Institute of Atmospheric Physics)

Track Classification: 1. The Earth as a complex system