

Anastasiia Kulikova

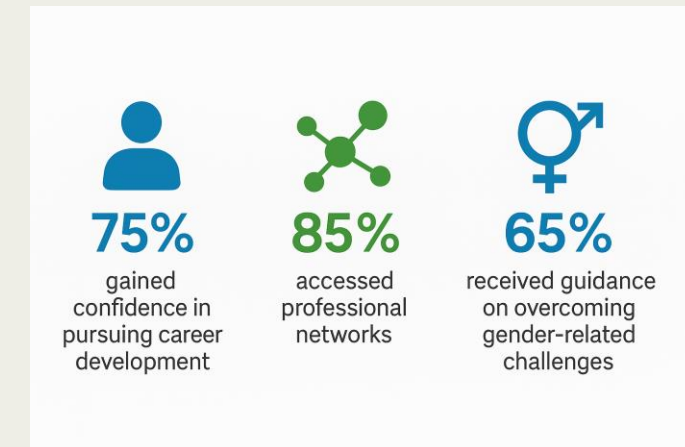

P5.3-166

- This poster explores the CTBTO Mentoring Programme and its impact on STEM professionals worldwide, particularly in supporting career development, networking, and gender parity in nuclear domain.
- Mentorship bridges global talent with CTBTO's mission, equipping female participants with skills, confidence, and exposure to nuclear non-proliferation while fostering a more inclusive environment for future female leaders.
- The poster shows the collected survey data from 21 mentees across diverse regions, examining mentorship engagement, skill development, networking opportunities, and the programme's influence on career trajectories.

• Program impact for mentees in numbers:

- Overall, CTBTO Mentoring Program empowers global STEM professionals, supports CTBTO's mission, and advances gender parity in nuclear diplomacy!
- Explore more about this research outcomes and practical suggestions at the Board 35!